

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Today Congressman John W. Olver announced that the Twin Cities Development

The funding is part of a $160 million new federal initiative to combat home foreclosures that was included

Congressman John Olver said, "This is the first time that federal funds have specifically been targeted at

The Twin Cities CDC received their support as part of a first round of funding totaling $130 million that was

###